My beloved Brother

Thy last giving an account of as Sister's illness has come to hand and I need not say it has caused me deep sympathy on thy account and that of thy dear children well knowing what a loss it is to be deprived of a loving Mother though in the ordering of a Loving Father they have had the great privilege for so many years of her kind and loving oversight from thy last I hardly expect thy dear one is still with you in the body though her rallying for us has been great I remember in 1875 we were expecting from the accounts to hear of her release but a Loving Father has granted 7 years more and it may be the
