a Red Coat

Barnard Carron

Minister - 1/11
14 years

J. J. Gillibrand Esq^r

7-1/2

Charged with defamation of Character - and style of Penalty - by Mr. E. Nicholas Juror -

E. Nicholas being sworn Sath - I am Supt of Mr Gillibrands farm at Kings -bottom - Barnard Carron was lately sent up as an apprentice servant by Mr Gillibrand - with the following Memorandum - "Mr Nicholas, you will "B Carron in the Gardens but in "low and let him make himself "generally useful, but I do not "want you to put him to hard work."
Bye - J. J. Gillibrand

I accuse Barnard Carron to do some light work in the Gardens, of which he only did part, working only an hour or two in the day, he has not paper a whole day without doing some work since he came up - A man named Cartter one of the servants, informed me, that Carron has been saying many things to my disadvantage, & that he knew something that would send me to the devil - Carron has never shown any disposition to or refuse to do any work that I ordered him to do - x? Carron has commenced at the work I set him to, but has generally done very little - Carron has always been very respectful to me.

Wm. Carlton, Surgeon, Perth - I am fully satisfied & employe in the service of Mr Gellibrand at Kimballie On Sunday last I was in the garden but a the Gard^r ordered Carron to work which he would not do - As Carron came out to the garden told me that he was annoyed by the Gard^r & that he would not be obliged to work by the such a fellow as that - & that Mr Nicholas was a greater rascal for allow^g the Gard^r to take such liberties that he would write to Mr Gellibrand to let him know what hee been doing for the last 6 months - that I would wonder soon to know as a striper - & that he knew something that would send Mr Nicholas to the deuce - that I knew all about - I then said I would tell Mr Nicholas what he had said to me & I did so. The next morn^g Carron was obliged to cut potatoes - Carron came to the hut & ask^{ed} me for a knife to cut potatoes - I saw that Mr Nicholas for me - I asked him who the man he was going to bring a witness against me, who would shill me - has? the last thing I do was to drop it - what do I do? I do not do - x^d the Gard^r was his stalk chape of the Garden ^{on the} Sunday the Carron took place

- the Gard^r was ^{him} there in the forenoon of that day? - I cannot say whether Carron knew that he was hired there as a Gardener! - The Gardener was Cohen.
I did not call Carron out & tell him to go to Mr. Nicholas? - Carron came to me abt. his treach^r from the Gard^r - since he was not sent there to work - when I recommended him to go to Mr. Nicholas?
I never s^d to Carron that he was a heavy man - & that he had hired 7 men & that he should not be the cause of hiring more men than? - I never s^d that Carron was sent up there as a spy - & that I would have him up to the Police Off. & let him flee - I was the only man that would oblige Carron about the place? - he had got into contention with all the others -

Matthew Reegan, Sworn Deput^e - Abt. a fortnight or so work Carron came up to Kimbaltor? - Carron has lived in the Scams but with me since he came up - I have always s^d Carron speak respectfully of Mr. Nicholas - I have seen Carron was at work like other men as I have paid for my meals to the tent - x^d by Mr. Nicholas - I have remarked by Carron to go to wife of: Carron, as he had taken him into Custody since taken a Constable - since Carron left Humberston Thame heard the men say that he was a troublesome man, causing disturbance & -

F. P. Constable

Charge, with having gone to a public house to purchase spirits at an improper hour of the night.

I find with doing the same at an improper hour with a Sunday school.
Mr. Vincent, Sworn, said that Constable Clarke came to his home twice at improper hours - once on a Sunday morning before Church - & on another occasion after 8 o'clock on the evening, but was refused spirits both times - it was 5 minutes after 8 o'clock when Clark came to go to the Swan South. At a strength of 1000 Clark was going to carry a letter from the place where he was going on duty & I had then I was ordered him a pint of spirits - there was a Sunday evening - I found him that money & a small bottle to fetch it in
- it was just about dusk - he returned with 2 bottles & sold for him the spirits as it was after hours - that he was very sorry he was first sent to the supper he went for all improper intention - I went into the gutter house near the river in my & the factor say it was there 8 o'clock

Said: said Clark said - on a Sunday - I was going to my station (at 9 1/2 o'clock) - I felt very much winded & I had a headache & I was tired & I directed me to take a glass of spirit when I found my complaint coming around, it is a small & I declared it was not my intention to buy a pint for Mrs. Vincent's just for the spirits -

Sir

I beg leave to inform you that on Monday last the 29th instant I sentenced - John Blackburne - Roslyn Castle - a prisoner to Mr Marjetti - to six months in Chains New Norfolk for continual neglect of duty, and laziness - and on the same day Samuel Prewett - Bengal Merchant 1728 - a prisoner to Lord Lovell - to 50 lashes for neglect of duty, and for saying in my presence that if he was punished he would be ~~the~~ the most useful man upon the farm - I mention this part of his offence particularly, having promised him should he again be tray'd before me a long spell in Chains in the deep Gully, which I should have sentenced him to in this case did I not consider that by so doing the Master, is as much punished as the Maatacutt 24. Dec 1850

Dear Sir

I have to acquaint you with the Cases of six of Mr Ladds men, who were brought before me yesterday by Mr Ladds the Superintendent of the Lawrence estate, charged by him with disobedience of orders

William Arnold / does not know his sentence - 7 years Frederick James Brown / do / James - Life Robert Goddard / do / Sir George Webster / 14 years Henry Proctor 797. / Samuel Merchant - 7 years William Marshall 705 / Samuel Merchant - 7 years William Chivers. does not know his sentence - does not know his sentence - when I asked him what his sentence was, he impudently answered none was ever passed

These men in a body refused to do any work what ever, and the 23 by His Majesties Bench order, after Mr Ladds had twice ordered them they made no defence, it appears evidently to me that they had combined together, resolved to refuse work, and there being so large a number of men on that estate, I considered any thing in

Michael Vicary Esq
 Police Magistrate
 Northwell.

The shape of a combination, richly deserving of exemplary punishment.

I therefore sentenced the first five men to fifty lashes and to be returned to the service of their master.

William Chivers, who by his manner before me and Mr Ladd's report of his general conduct I sentenced to nine months in the Chain gang, Dart Gully to be returned to his master's service.

 May -

Mr Hood Iron, Smith, & Co contractors for the erection of Buildings at Brompton - On Saturday last the 29th ~~of~~ May Mr Buzagone came to the site of Brompton and entered the Shop occupied by the Government Mechanics between 7 & 8 o'clock - hearing a noise in the Shop I went into it to ascertain the cause and found that Buzagone creating an uproar in the place, he was not drunk but he appeared as if he had been drinking

- I ordered him out of the Pub
- he threw snow at me in a very indecent manner and said he would not be ordered about by me or any other ~~by~~ others about the Tavern - he then came out of the Pub - I told him of the impropriety of his conduct - that I had previously had charge of foot men & that I always indicted those men who behaved improperly and performed their work - but those who did not I would have punished - I desired him to go away as it was not my wish to bring him before a Magistrate if I could avoid it - he commenced a repetition of the most offensive language - and at the same time put his hand into his pocket - took out a knife and putting it slightly behind his back, opened it - he said that when he had done his work here come to Bottumels or go away & spend his money and get drunk when and where he pleas'd - and that the whole people in the Colony should not hurt him out - that he would be hung up by his bel - by neck before they should do so - and threw

Mr Carlile - I am sure I am one of the Government Juries employed at the Court, Doltwell - on Saturday Evening last Thomas Burgoyne came to the Court when I was on - he was drunk & had a gun in his hand - he let the gun fall on one of the seats - which created a dispute - and some noise - Mr Hood came to the Court in consequence of the noise and ordered Burgoyne out - I went out of the Court for a little time - I saw Mr Hood & Burgoyne came out of the hut - I heard Buryague say, for Mr Good, at the same time pointing to me, "that "is the bloody dog that carries "tells to you" - At the same time threw something at me which I suppose to be either a knife or a piece of iron - it struck in a log of the landing within a foot of where I was standing - I had not time to see what it was that Buryague threw at me for he went & picked it up directly -

These men had or their Jurons standing outside the door at the time I am speaking of Wilson ~~Caraka~~

Caraka

Mr Pitcher, Juron, said I was employed as Banklayer on the Gov. Works (Baltimore) Contract by carrying that that Buryague came to the hut when I resided
- he appeared to have been drinking he had a gun in his hand - he let it fall on ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{Coldest} ~~the~~ ^{one} of the men's toes & it created a disturbance in the hut - the man ^{Wally} took it up & asked him what he meant - Buryague was then standing by the fire - he threw the gun from him towards the door, and also threw his hat off, and said that he meant any thing that he ^{could} "do" - Mr Hood came into the Skut - and ordered him out - he told Mr Hood he wd not go out of the Skut for all the people on the Settlement, without he had a mind to do so - some few minutes after that he went out - I heard Baynes talk in a rough unkind way to Mr Hood - outside the Skut -
